LAKEMETROPARKS
Fishing Locations
 RIVER | POND | LAKESHORE

Lake Metroparks is committed to protecting existing water resources and preserving areas through outreach and easement opportunities. Access for anglers has been made possible through construction of trails, parking areas, canoe landings and decks.

A State of Ohio fishing license is required for fishing in all rivers and tributaries, for fishing along and in Lake Erie and at Veterans Park.
 Visit wildlife.ohiodnr.gov/fishingregulations for license information.

A State of Ohio fishing license is not required by children or adults to fish in these ponds, except where noted:

- Blair Ridge Park
- Chapin Forest Reservation
- Concord Woods Nature Park
- Girdled Road Reservation
- Hidden Lake (daily limit of five rainbow trout taken out per day per person)
- Hidden Valley Park (pond fishing at River Rd. entrance)
- Penitentiary Glen Reservation
- River Road Park

For fish limits and more state fishing rules and regulations, visit gotolake.metroparks.com/fishing.

UNUSED WORMS?
 Toss them in the TRASH.
 Earthworms are invasive species. Help protect the health of our native forests and waters.
